

What If? (Part 4)

The Strength of Several Jacobs

Study Guide

- “What if His people _____?”
- E.M. Bounds:
  - ◆ “What the Church needs today is not more _____ . . . not new organizations or more and novel _____, but men [and women] whom the Holy Spirit can use—men of _____, men _____ in prayer. The Holy Spirit does not flow through methods, but through men. He does not come on machinery, but on men. He does not anoint _____, but men—men of prayer” (Power Through Prayer, 10).
- “If one Jacob can _____, then what could _____ Jacob’s accomplish?”
- John Wesley:
  - ◆ “Give me one _____ preachers who fear nothing but _____, and desire nothing but God, and I care not a straw whether they be clergymen or laymen; such _____ will shake the gates of hell and set up the kingdom of heaven on earth. God does _____ but in _____ to prayer” (Power Through Prayer, 105).

- C.S. Lewis
  - ◆ “God gives where He finds _____. A man whose hands are _____ of parcels can’t _____ a gift” (Letters to an American Lady, 73).

“If My people, who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and heal their land” (2 Chronicles 7:14).
